SIGNIFICANT INCIDENTS

May 2nd - At around 2135 hours, BID officer Smith received a service call regarding a female transient running in and out of traffic on 8th and Broadway. Upon arrival, BID officer Smith located the woman and made several attempts to have her come back on the sidewalk. The woman refused to comply and continued to obstruct traffic. A call was placed to LAPD regarding the incident. An LAPD unit responded and arrived on scene shortly after. LAPD officers then determined that the woman was mentally ill. The woman was then detained by LAPD officers without incident. The woman was then transported and placed under a mental evaluation hold.

May 4th - At approximately 0920 hours, BID officer Carmona and BID officer Benson received a citizen notification on their phone regarding a possible hit and run at 530 S Spring street. BID officers quickly raced to the scene and found LAFD paramedics treating a person for minor injuries. LAPD was also on scene making a report. BID officers assisted by directing pedestrian traffic and vehicle traffic around the incident. Once the scene was cleared, LAPD officers clarified that it was not a hit and run. The occupant of the vehicle remained at the scene and cooperated with officers. The victim who was struck was released shortly after.

May 5th - At about 1000 hours, BID officer Carmona and BID officer Smith were on their routine patrol when they received a citizen notification on their phone. The citizen app stated that there was a heavy LAPD presence on the corner of 6th and Main. BID officers made their way to the scene and found LAPD conducting a high-risk traffic stop. The suspect in the vehicle was refusing to comply with LAPD orders. BID officers assisted with crowd control due to the increasing number of pedestrians watching the incident. Within a few minutes, LAPD was able to gain control of the situation and took the suspect in without incident. BID officers were also cleared from the scene once the pedestrian traffic in the area had decreased.

May 11th - BID officers Cervantes and Perchlak were casually patrolling Main Street when they heard shots ring out at about 1921 hours. BID officers carefully made their way over the direction of the shots and found LAPD taping off the area as it was an active crime scene. The shots fired were confirmed by LAPD officers however, no further information was given due to the ongoing investigation. BID officers resumed their patrol shortly after and notified residents and business to avoid the area due to the ongoing police activity.

May 15th - At approximately 0410 hours, BID Officer Perchlak and BID Officer Novales received a citizen notification on their phone pertaining to heavy LAPD activity along Spring street between 6th and 7th. BID officers made their way to the scene and found that the area had been tapped off. BID officers then made contact with LAPD outside of the taped area and were informed that a shooting had taken place. BID officers were also told that they had one person in custody pertaining to the incident. As for the victim, they were treated at the scene by LAFD with non-life threatening injuries. The victim was then transported to the nearest hospital in stable condition.

May 30th - While on his routine patrol, BID officer Cervantes noticed heavy LAPD presence on the corner of 5th and Main Street at approximately 0735 hours. BID officer Cervantes made contact with LAPD and was advised that they had a jumper situation. BID officers were then called in to the scene to assist with crowd control and vehicle traffic. Luckily, LAPD was able to talk the person down within the hour. The subject was then detained and transported under a mental evaluation hold. BID officers also cleared the scene right after.
