SIGNIFICANT INCIDENTS

February 2nd - At around 1430 hours, BID officer Ajaa was patrolling the Broadway corridor when he was flagged down by a citizen on 6th street. The concerned citizen told BID officer Ajaa that there was an unconscious individual over by 307 W 6th street who appeared to be in need of some assistance. While making contact, BID officer Ajaa noticed that the individual was breathing but was not responding. LAFD was contacted and advised of the situation. Upon arrival, LAFD assessed the individual and determined that the individual needed to be transported. The cause was unknown, but LAFD speculated that it may have possibly been a drug overdose.

February 3rd - While on patrol at about 1610 hours, BID officer Aguilar received a service call at Harlem and 6th street regarding a possible fire. BID officer Aguilar arrived at the scene within a few minutes and was able to locate the small fire. A tent along with a few other items were ignited. BID officer Aguilar contacted additional units as well as LAFD. Once LAFD arrived, they were able to contain the scene immediately. A short investigation was carried out by LAFD and BID officers were notified that the fire was intentionally set. BID officers remained on high alert throughout the area and canvased the surrounding streets for potential arsonists.

February 8th - At approximately 0333 hours, BID officer Buckley and Novales received a citizen notification alert for possible shots fired over at 5th and Main. BID officers responded to the location with extreme caution and found multiple LAPD units on scene. Shortly after, LAPD confirmed with BID officers that a shooting took place inside the residential unit. One person was transported in stable condition while one person was in custody. BID officers were cleared from the scene once their report was completed. LAPD then cleared the scene within a few hours and concluded their investigation. The street was reopened in the early AM hours and traffic resumed as usual.

February 9th - While BID officers were attending a service call at Winston and Los Angeles, a male individual who appeared to be in distress, approached BID officers and asked for help. Upon further evaluation, BID officers found out that the male had been stabbed once in the stomach. When questioned, the male stated that this took place a few blocks down and that he didn't recall being stabbed. The victim also appeared to be heavily intoxicated during the dialogue. LAPD and LAFD was dispatched by BID officers for additional assistance. Both agencies took over the situation upon arrival. The victim was transported in an unknown condition but was expected to make it despite the copious amount of blood loss.

February 13th - As the Los Angeles Rams won the Superbowl, the district faced excessive celebrations all throughout the neighborhood. Compared to prior civil unrest, the district was not hit as bad. Although we did have one business that was broken into on Broadway numerous businesses were safely preserved while others reported minimal damage/acts of graffiti. LAPD was actively on scene and helped suppress most of the rioters. The following day, our maintenance team took care of most of the graffiti marks.

February 23rd - BID officers Ajaa and Aguilar were finishing up a service call at 6th and Spring when they noticed multiple LAFD units approaching the corner of 5th and Spring. Once BID officers finished their service call, they made their way over to where the LAFD activity was. Apparently, a vehicle crossed over to the bike lane in a low rate of speed and collided with a pedestrian riding a scooter. The person that was hit by the vehicle was in stable condition and release by LAFD shortly after. BID officers stood by and assisted with crowd control due to a small crowd formulating.

ACCOMPLISHMENTS

February 25th, 2022 - At approximately 1240 hours, BID officer Ramirez was on his routine patrol at 4th and Los Angeles Street when he spotted a woman going in and out of traffic. BID officer Ramirez quickly called for backup and attempted to gain verbal compliance. Unfortunately, the woman was being uncooperative and appeared to be under the influence. The situation escalated as the woman began to throw boxes and random items at pedestrians/vehicles passing by. At one point, she even began swinging a metal pole at responding BID officers. LAPD was contacted and arrived shortly within minutes. The woman also acted aggressively towards responding LAPD officers. A short foot pursuit ensued and ended at 3rd and Wall Street. LAPD officers took the female subject into custody without further incident. BID officer Ramirez assisted LAPD by identifying the woman and providing a detailed description of her actions. The situation was soon under control and BID officers were released from the scene shortly after.

When needed, BID officers can assist LAPD with various tasks.

Need a helping hand? Please reach out to our Green Shirts!

BID officers work closely with our Maintenance provider in addressing all maintenance needs.

BID officers also play a huge role with community engagement. Here we have a BID officer engaging in a casual conversation with a member of the street population.

BID officers don't enforce, but can educate vendors on the legality of setting up in public spaces.

As the days start to heat up, BID officers prepare to pass out waters to those in need.

Picking up scooters is just another daily routine for these folks.

BID officer Garcia was able to provide chest compressions long enough until LAFD arrived.

Because of these life saving measures, BID officers were able to stabilize the individuals breathing.

LAFD took over the scene and administered Narcan. The individual was able to leave the area without incident.

BID officers stay in constant communication with LAPD in order to be updated with current crime trends.

Throughout the early AM hours, BID officers conduct routine wellness checks on members of the street population.
