SIGNIFICANT INCIDENTS

July 2nd - July 2nd- At approximately 2344 hours, BID officer Novales was on his routine patrol when he came across a transient woman who was breaking the glass window on one of the businesses on 6th and Spring. BID officer Novales radioed in for backup and placed a call to LAPD. Responding LAPD officers located the transient woman a few feet away from the business. Upon making contact, LAPD officers determined that the transient was mentally ill. LAPD officers took the vandalism report and placed woman under 5150 hold. The building management was also notified of the incident and arrived an hour later to secure the business.

July 5th - BID officer Aguilar was on his routine patrol when he received a service call for a traffic collision on 7th and Spring. Upon arrival BID officer Aguilar located the two vehicles involved in the traffic collision and noticed both occupants of the vehicles arguing. Aguilar stepped in to deescalate the situation as both parties became extremely agitated. While regaining control of the situation, Aguilar noticed one of the drivers attempting to flee the scene in his vehicle. Aguilar got the drivers license plate number before fully leaving the scene. A call was placed to LAPD shortly after and the information was relayed to LAPD traffic units.

July 10th - At around 2334 hours, evening BID officers received a call for a tent blocking the sidewalk on Broadway, between 5th and 6th. BID officers responded to the scene and noticed a tent right in the middle of the sidewalk. During this time, Broadway was congested with pedestrian traffic due to an evening event. BID officers were able to make contact and relocate the subject away from the busy street. Resources were also offered during the initial contact. Although the individual denied immediate service, BID officers provided our outreach business card in case if he changes his mind.

July 14th - BID officers received a service call from someone who was in need of medical aid over by 4th and Main street. BID officers also notified the caller to place an additional call to LAFD. AS BID officers arrived on scene they located the individual who was in need of assistance. LAFD was also on scene and was treating the individual for a cut in his eye. The individual denied further treatment and was released on scene shortly after. BID officers preformed a safety walk a few blocks away to ensure that the individual made home safely.

July 19th - While on patrol, BID officer Harbour noticed the smell of something burning nearby from the corner of 4th and Los Angeles street. As BID officer Harbour made his way over to Winston street, he was able to locate the small fire. Someone had set fire to the carboard boxes left on the curb. Harbour then called in our patrol vehicle for assistance. Aguilar arrived a few minutes later and extinguished the fire with our portable water unit. BID officers then notified the clean team so that they could clean up the remaining debris.

July 25th - At approximately 2234 hours, BID officer Novales received a call regarding an irate individual on the corner of 6th and Los Angeles. As Novales arrived on scene, he was able to locate the individual causing the disturbance. He was laying in the middle of the road complaining that he had gotten peppered sprayed. Novales provided a dry cloth and a few water bottles in an effort to assist, medical service was denied. Within a few minutes, the individual was able to regain his composure and walked away towards skid row. Novales remained on scene to assure the individual didn't return and cause another disturbance.

ACCOMPLISHMENTS

July 21st, 2022 - While conducting their vehicle patrol, BID officers Aguilar and Dawson were approaching the intersection of 7th and Spring when they noticed a large group of individuals arguing with each other. Within seconds, two individuals from the group produced a firearm and began firing at the opposing party. As the suspects fled the scene, BID officers rendered aid to the two victims who were shot. LAPD arrived quickly as the scene gathered a lot of attention. Responding LAPD units took over and dispatched LAFD as well. Both victims were transported with non-life threatening injuries. BID officers remained on scene until cleared by LAPD. The BID officer's information and observation was a vital part of the investigation.
