SAFETY REPORT

OCTOBER 2023

On October 2, 2023, a Historic Core Business Improvement District (BID) officer received a call from the Historic Core clean team, seeking assistance at the intersection of Broadway and 8th Street. They reported a male individual who was unwilling to vacate the premises, hindering the clean-up efforts. The responding BID officers successfully persuaded the gentleman to depart from the location, allowing the clean team to proceed with their task of tidying up the area.

On October 6, 2023, at approximately 7:25 PM, a Historic Core Business Improvement District (BID) officer responded to a service call concerning an individual obstructing the entrance to a business on 7th Street. Upon arrival, The BID officer engaged with the individual and requested that he move elsewhere. This individual is recognized for being highly confrontational and has a history of altercations with BID officers. On this occasion, he promptly stood up, began shouting, and hurled a bottle onto the floor then walked away from the area.

On October 8, 2023, at approximately 4:44 AM, during a routine patrol, a Historic Core Business Improvement District (BID) officer spotted an individual igniting a fire in the 500 block of 5th street. As the officer approached, they promptly extinguished the small fire. The gentleman expressed frustration and proceeded to use a torch in an attempt to set his pants ablaze. However, his efforts proved unsuccessful, prompting him to move to a different location.

On October 12, 2023, at approximately 11:30 AM, a Historic Core Business Improvement District (BID) officer received a call at the 600 block of Spring St. regarding a person yelling and screaming on the corner. When the BID officers arrived they saw him sitting on the ground yelling and screaming. The BID officer attempted to calm him down by speaking to the man calmly. It was determined that the man may have needed some medical attention. LAFD was contacted. The man was evaluated and taken in for medical attention.
